Report on Legal Awareness Programme

Event Name: Legal Awareness Programme

Date: 04/09/2019

Time: 2:00 PM

Organized by: Government General Degree College Lalgarh, NSS Unit-1, in collaboration with Paschim Medinipur District Legal Service Authority

Venue: College Hall Room

Number of Participants: More than 50 students

Duration: 1.5 hours

Introduction

On September 04, 2019, the Government General Degree College Lalgarh hosted a Law Awareness Programme aimed at educating students about their legal rights and responsibilities. The event was organized by the NSS Unit-1 in collaboration with the Paschim Medinipur District Legal Service Authority, reflecting a commitment to empowering youth through legal knowledge.

Overview of the Programme

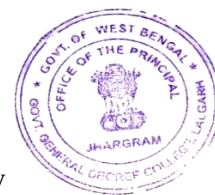

The programme commenced at 2:00 PM with an introduction by the NSS coordinator, who highlighted the importance of legal awareness among students. This was followed by presentations from legal experts who discussed various aspects of law relevant to the participants.

Legal Awareness Programme at GGDC, LALGARH.....

Key Highlights

1. Understanding Legal Rights: The sessions covered fundamental rights and duties of citizens, focusing on how students can protect themselves and seek justice in their daily lives.
2. Common Legal Issues: The speakers addressed common problems faced by students, such as disputes related to education, consumer rights, and employment issues, providing practical solutions and guidance.
3. Awareness of Offences: A significant part of the programme was dedicated to discussing serious offences like ragging and sexual harassment. The participants learned about the legal definitions of these offences, the repercussions for perpetrators, and the support systems available for victims.
4. Interactive Q&A Session: An interactive session allowed students to ask questions, fostering an engaging environment. Many students shared their concerns and sought clarification on various legal issues.

Outcome

The Law Awareness Programme successfully achieved its goal of educating over 50 participants about their legal rights and responsibilities. Students left the event with a better understanding of legal issues that affect them in their daily lives. They expressed gratitude for the knowledge gained, particularly regarding the serious matters of ragging and sexual harassment, which are vital for ensuring a safe college environment.

Conclusion

The collaboration between the Government General Degree College Lalgarh and the Paschim Medinipur District Legal Service Authority proved to be a fruitful endeavor in promoting legal awareness among students. The NSS volunteers played a crucial role in organizing and facilitating the event. This programme not only equipped students with essential legal knowledge but also empowered them to advocate for their rights and support their peers. Future initiatives should continue to build on this momentum to further enhance legal literacy among the youth.

Report on International Mother Language Day Celebration -2020

The Government General Degree College, Lalgarh, celebrated International Mother Language Day on February 21, 2020, with a special event organized in the college hall room. The celebration commenced at 12:00 PM with the participation of 25 enthusiastic students and several faculty members.

Objective of the Event:

The primary aim of the celebration was to promote linguistic and cultural diversity and raise awareness of the importance of preserving mother languages around the world. This day holds significant historical importance, as it commemorates the 1952 Bengali Language Movement in Bangladesh, where students sacrificed their lives for the recognition of their mother tongue.

Event Proceedings:

The event started with the college principal delivering an opening address, emphasizing the importance of preserving one's linguistic heritage. He highlighted how language is not just a means of communication but also a vital part of a person's identity and culture.

Following the opening remarks, a series of cultural activities took place, reflecting the rich diversity of mother languages spoken by the students. Some students recited poems and songs in their mother tongue, while others shared short speeches on the importance of multilingualism in today's globalized world. A small skit was performed, which depicted the struggles faced by individuals in preserving their mother languages.

Highlights of the Celebration:

1. Cultural Performances: Students showcased various performances in their native languages, celebrating the diversity within the college community.

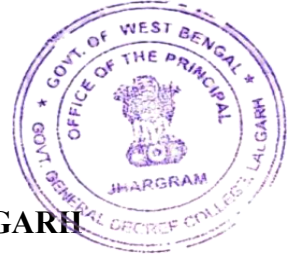

2. Speeches: Faculty members and students discussed the significance of multilingualism and the need for linguistic eq

International Mother Language Day Celebration 21.02.2020

The program ended with a vote of thanks, where the organizing committee expressed gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the event. The celebration was a reflection of the rich linguistic diversity present in the college and emphasized the need to continue promoting and protecting mother languages across the world.

Overall, the International Mother Language Day celebration at Government General Degree College, Lalgah, was a successful and meaningful event, fostering a deeper appreciation for linguistic and cultural diversity among the students and faculty
