- Header: Government of West Bengal logo, Government General Degree College, Lalgarh, Jhargram, and website URL.
- Notice: Ref. No.: 2024/GGDCI/Admission/02, Date: 19.06.2024. Text: "The competent authority in the State Government and Vidyasagar University has decided to introduce Centralized Online Admission to all Undergraduate courses / programmes in West Bengal for the academic session 2024–2025 in all Government, Government-Aided Colleges. The online admission process will be conducted through a centralized online portal."
- Section: GENERAL GUIDELINES Application and Admission
- Guidelines:
  - Any candidate who has passed 10+2 or equivalent examination may register in the online centralized portal, subject to certain restrictions in terms of the year of passing (within 4 (four) consecutive academic sessions from the date of passing the qualifying examination) as set by the concerned Universities/Colleges/Higher Education Institutions
  - A candidate can search for courses / programmes, colleges, and universities even before registering in the portal and access all relevant details, such as course / programme - wise eligibility criteria, number of seats (category-wise), formula for merit-index calculation, combination subjects offered, college profile, etc..
  - To register, candidates must provide a mobile number as their primary contact. This mobile number will be used for identification of the candidate and communication throughout the Centralized Online Admission Process. Additionally, the candidate must also provide a valid e-mail address to receive different communications from the portal during the Centralized Online Admission process (U/G). Candidates are
